Medical Education Award to Be Presented at the Ohio ACEP EM Assembly to Brad D. Gable, MD, MS, FACEP

Columbus, OH—The Ohio Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians (Ohio ACEP) is pleased to announce that the recipient of the 2019 Emergency Physician Medical Education Award is Brad D. Gable, MD, MS, FACEP, an exemplary physician educator and a dedicated mentor to his students.

The Emergency Physician Medical Education Award was established to recognize contributions to education in the field of emergency medicine. The honor is bestowed upon emergency physicians who have exhibited exemplary teaching skills, implemented an exceptional education program, or developed an innovative teaching model.

Dr. Brad Gable—an attending physician with Mid-Ohio Emergency Services and Medical Director of Simulation for the OhioHealth System—meets and exceeds these criteria. As an instructor and clinician, he is greatly admired and respected by his students and his peers. He was twice recognized by his colleagues and nursing staff as Physician of the Year at Riverside Methodist Hospital and was selected twice by residents of Riverside Methodist Hospital as Emergency Medicine Teacher of the Year.

Brad D. Gable, MD,
MS, FACEP
Recipient of the 2019
Emergency Physician
Medical Education
Award

Dr. Gable educates residents, medical students, emergency medical personnel, and other physicians using traditional lecture, bedside teaching, problem-based learning, simulation cases, deliberate practice, and large-scale disaster drills. He is tireless in his dedication to medical education and eagerly serves as a role model to his students while also chairing the Graduate Medical Education Committee at Riverside Methodist Hospital.

Dr. Gable has developed innovative, multidisciplinary simulation training in the emergency department including scenarios to teach de-escalation of agitated patients, obstetric emergencies, trauma, and resuscitative techniques. These initiatives have shown improved patient outcomes, enhanced teamwork, and increased staff satisfaction.

Dr. Gable was nominated by Ohio ACEP President-Elect, Dr. Bradley Raetzke, who is a colleague of Dr. Gable's at Mid-Ohio Emergency Services. Dr. Raetzke praised Dr. Gable's commitment to his students and described Dr. Gable as a nationally recognized expert in medical simulation-based education.

The Emergency Physician Medical Education Award will be presented to Dr. Gable on March 20, 2019, at the Ohio ACEP Emergency Medicine Assembly. Ohio ACEP congratulates Dr. Brad Gable on his well-deserved accolade!
